NEW LONDON
Miss Anna M. Mallon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mallon of No. 45 Broad St., was married on Wednesday at St. Mary's Star of the Sea church with William J. Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Murray of No. 109 Blackhall street. Nuptial high mass was celebrated by Rev. Alexander C. Weisselager, who also presided at the wedding ceremony. The altar was adorned with palms, lilies and pink gladioli.
The bride wore a gown of primrose lace over white satin, with white picture hat, and carried an arm bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Murray was bridesmaid. She wore pink crepe de chine, with pink picture hat, and carried an arm bouquet of pink gladioli. John D. McManus of No. 17 Alger place was best man.
A special musical programme arranged by Edward J. Harris and Mrs. James Murphy of Westbury, was rendered. A quartet, Mrs. Katherine Hiebert, Miss Helen Gentry, Mrs. Frank Stanton of Stonington, Thomas P. Dorsey, Jr. and Mr. Hand, sang the responses and gave "Clivers." "Benedictus" and "Agnus Dei." Miss Frank Stanton contralto, sang Gounod's Ave Maria. A reception was held and a breakfast served in the home of the bride, following the church ceremony.
Dr. and Mrs. Murray will go to Canada and Nova Scotia and will live here. The bride is a graduate from St. Mary's school. She has recently been employed by Hildebeck & Langdon, architects. Mr. Murray was graduated from Buckley High School and from the University of Maryland. Baltimore. He is now present from Norwich, Westbury, Hartford, New York, Providence and Baltimore.

At present Miss Lessard has an exhibition number of charts of babies of mothers whose children are being brought to the room for examination. Miss Lessard said Thursday that 14 babies have attended the clinic, of which eight have been supervised by her, but not directly as a part of the clinic. The nurse is in her room Wednesday afternoon from 2 until 5 for the purpose of conferring with mothers who wish to bring their children there. There are measured and weighed, and records kept from week to week, and a development can be traced. In cases where necessary the nurse recommends that the children be placed in the care of a physician. Speaking of her work, Miss Lessard said: "Only this morning two mothers came to me to learn about feeding their children. I helped them, and am glad that I am able to do this kind of work. It brings me into contact with the nurse's activity."

Breed Theatre and Majestic Road Garden.
William Farnham heads the bill at the breed theatre and Majestic Road Garden tonight in "The Scuttles." This is a thrilling picture and will appeal to all those who are fond of sea stories. A road show part, "The Scuttles" comedy entitled "The Night Before" will also be shown and the Pathe News will continue to show the bill.
Coming Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, a film version of David Belasco's dramatic triumph, "The Heart of Maryland."
Davis Theatre.
Can you "knew" what the other man is thinking? Is a man who thinks mind (or equally good) the man who is actually committing the deed?
These and many other ethical problems made "The Scuttles" a play of the greatest stage success of all times. The Augustus Thomas triumph has now been filmed as a William D. Taylor Reelart special. "The Scuttles" will be shown at the Davis theatre for three days, beginning Sunday.
To interpret this gripping play of a strong man's world, the writer employed and secured a really all-star cast. Elliott Dexter, famous leading man of the stage, and Cecil B. de Mille productions was considered a perfect choice. In the role of the gentleman gambler who came to realize that his ability to cheat was just as much as if he had slipped cards up his sleeve.
Mary Allen, of "Birth of a Nation" fame, has the mother role, created by Jennie Hunsake. Clay Whipple, the best known youngster who had an inherited loathing for the cat-sue eye, is cast by the juvenile lead, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., a leading lady for Douglas Fairbanks plays opposite him.
A five reel Mack Sennett comedy will be included in the programme. This rick-tickler is entitled "On a Summer Day" and is said to be one of the funniest comedies yet made. The king of laugh makers, Mack Sennett, a Paramount Magazine will also be shown.
Strand.
Four vaudeville acts that cannot be beaten. A variety that has not yet been seen in Norwich. The act has its own characteristics. Surely a very fine programme. Don't miss it.
Barle Williams is sure to continue in popularity with a vehicle as "I Can Be Done," which will be shown at the Strand theatre today and Saturday. In this production he assumes the role of an author who attempts to write one of his stories. The action is humorous in places and at times assumes intensely dramatic proportions. It is a sort of detective story, full of mystery, suspense and action. The love interest has not been forgotten by the author and it completes a well rounded story that will appeal to the average person. Elmer Fair plays opposite the star, who is supported by a cast of actors. The film was directed by David Smith.
